The Wrath of Sinestro
Script

FADE IN:

A GRADIENT BLACK AND YELLOW RADIANT BACKGROUND WITH THE YELLOW LANTERN EMBLEM

The short opens with a black and yellow radiant background with the Yellow Lantern emblem, with the text reading "The Wrath of Sinestro". The title card then fades to black and fades to EXT. SPACE - BLACK SKY WITH WHITE STARS. A second later, Sinestro is seen flying in, with a glowing yellow aura surrounding him, as he maniacally laughs.

SINESTRO (slyly)
(maniacally laughing)
That good-green doofus thinks he can defeat me in the middle of my plan!?
I don't think of the slightest!

Sinestro holds up a Green Lantern Power Battery that belonged to Hal, which was to charge his power ring, as he continues to speak.

Heh, not with the power battery that I stole from his base of operations!
(chuckles)

Cut to a different shot in the vastness of space, where Sinestro stops and holds the power battery up high in his right hand, villainously looking at it.

SINESTRO (smirkingly)
(chuckles)
Now to see how POWERFUL this battery is capable of delivering!
(inhales, then sinisterly)
In blackest day, in brightest night, Beware your fear-
HUH!?

Suddenly, a green light shines behind Sinestro once he notices it, which turns out to be Hal Jordan, the Green Lantern himself, standing high and staring angrily at him.

HAL (heroically)
Not so fast, Sinestro!

Cut to a different angle where Hal and Sinestro confront each other, facing off against the power battery Sinestro has in his possession.

SINESTRO (eccentrically)
Well, look who showed up in my presence!
The GREEN LANTERN, here to ruin my master plan!
(mumbling to himself)
As persisted.

Cut to a closeup shot of Hal, still staring at Sinestro, but now pointing directly towards him.

HAL (heroically)
I suspected that you have TOOK my power battery! Now hand it over, you bewildered Yellow Lantern!

Cut to a shot of Sinestro, still holding the power battery in his hand.

SINESTRO (sinisterly)
(maniacally laughing)
Not a chance, Mr. Do-gooder green!

Sinestro points his arm out at Hal and his ring shoots a beam of yellow light.
Cut to a crisp angle of Hal dodging the beam, swerving from it.

HAL (slyly)
Slow enough for a Yellow Lantern like yourself, huh, Sinestro?
(chuckles)

Cut to a shot of Sinestro, ragefully angered, holding up his fistful palm.

SINESTRO (angered)
Grrrrrr…I'll show you!
(growls)
Take this!

Sinestro fires another beam from his ring, staring deeply and sinisterly at Hal. Cut to a moving shot of Hal dodging each beam that Sinestro fires at him by soaring towards him and yoinks the power battery from his hands.

HAL (snarkily)
YOINK!
(laughs)

SINESTRO (stunned)
WHAT!?
NO, THE POWER BATTERY OF THE GREEN LANTERN CORP!!

Hal floats slightly backwards with the power battery in his hand, snarkily and heroically looking at Sinestro.

HAL
Surrender, Sinestro!
The Guardians will escort you to prison!

Cut to a shot of Sinestro flying straight towards Hal, sinisterly about to tackle him.

SINESTRO (sinisterly)
Heh, I beg to differ, Green Lantern!

Sinestro eventually grabs the power battery from Hal and flies away. Hal eventually points his fist directly towards Sinestro.

HAL (heroically)
Oh no, ya don't!
(grunts)

Hal uses his ring to construct a net to grab Sinestro tightly. Cut to a shot of Sinestro, while the construct affects his ability to break free.

SINESTRO (stunned)
N-NO!!

Hal flies to Sinestro, now caught in the net, smirking intently.

HAL (smirkingly)
You were saying something about "begging to differ"?
I thought it was you who snuck in and stole the power battery!

SINESTRO (stunned)
That's impossible! How could you have possibly figured that out!?

Cut to a closeup shot of Hal, still smirking at Sinestro.

HAL (savagely; CONT'D)
There are security cameras in Sector 2814, that also includes monitoring devices on Earth, so how could YOUR foolish mind not figure THAT out?

The camera pans out slightly to show Sinestro, angrily sneering at Hal.

SINESTRO (angrily)
Ughhh, you insolent fool!
You and your stupid ring shall suffice the wrath of the Sinestro Corps-

Hal swipes the power battery off of Sinestro's hand and flies away.

HAL (smirkingly)
I'll take that!

SINESTRO (angrily)
(grunts)
Stupid Green Lantern!

Sinestro is still caught in the construct that Green Lantern had made earlier, struggling to break out of it.

SINESTRO (groaning)
Ohhh, the Sinestro Corps will not be pleased about this-

Fade to a shot of Hal, flying away with the power battery in his hand. He eventually stops and holds the battery up high.

HAL (heroically)
Alright, here we go-
(inhales)
In brightest day, in blackest night,
No evil shall escape my sight!
Let those who worship evil's might, beware my power - GREEN LANTERN'S LIGHT!

A green flash is shown as the screen becomes a full green, which then fades to black a few minutes later.

FADE OUT.
